

Elisabeth Brauß BIOGRAPHY

Elisabeth Brauß was born in 1995 to musical parents and received her first piano lessons at the age of 4.

At the age of 6 she was accepted into the piano class of Dr. Elena Levit, and in 2008 she also began studying in the class of Prof. Matti Raekallio. Since 2010 she is studying at the HMTM in Hanover in the class of Prof. Bernd Goetzke.

In this time, Elisabeth has given numerous concerts as a soloist, chamber musician and as a soloist with orchestra. These have included performances with the hr-Sinfonieorchester, the Bochumer Symphonikern, the Dortmunder Symphonikern, the Macao Youth Symphony Orchestra, the NDR Radiophilharmonie and the Deutsche Kammerphilharmonie Bremen.

Elisabeth Brauß appeared a.o. at the Konzerthaus Berlin, at the Laeisz-Halle in Hamburg, the Mariinsky Theatre in St. Petersburg, the Beethovenfest Bonn, at the Heidelberger Frühling as well as at the Schleswig-Holstein Musik Festival and the Festspiele Mecklenburg-Vorpommern several times.

International concert tours have taken her to China, to the USA, to Norway, to Russia, the Ukraine and Taiwan.

Apart from first prizes at the "Steinway Piano Competition" in Hamburg and at the "International Grotrian Steinweg Competition" in Braunschweig, she was awarded with the „Emerging Artists Prize of the Schleswig-Holstein Musik Festival 2010" and the „Emerging Artists Prize of the Music Prize 'Praetorius', awarded by the state Lower Saxony 2012".

In August 2013 she won the TONALi Grand Prix together with the audience prize in Hamburg. As a winner she performed with the Deutsche Kammerphilharmonie Bremen in the Laeisz-Halle Hamburg.

In January 2015 she won the competition „Ton und Erklärung" in Frankfurt and played together with the hr-Sinfonieorchester

In 2016 she won the „Kissinger KlavierOlymp" in Bad Kissingen.

For the season 2013/2014 she was receiving a scholarship from the Mozart Gesellschaft Dortmund. In 2014 she was also receiving a scholarship from the "Hans und Eugenia Jütting-Stiftung" and from the "Studienstiftung des deutschen Volkes".